CHESAPEAKE BEACH.
Free dancing remains one of the most popular features at Chesapeake Beach, the nearby Maryland bay resort. Prof. Ralph Garren's clown orchestra furnishes happy, kiddie music on the beach, the water pavilion. Salt water bathing, fishing, crabbing and boating are other attractions.

MARSHALL HALL.
Cool and delightful is the picnic grove at Marshall Hall. Splendid is the new pavilion. A river trip short and interesting on the historic Potomac brings one to this, the oldest of Washington's summer resorts.

Chesapeake Beach makes three trips daily to Marshall Hall, at 10 a. m., 2:30 and 6:45 p. m., stopping at Mount Vernon on the first two trips.

GREAT FALLS PARK.
At Great Falls Park all this week there will be free concerts, free dancing and other amusements, pleasing to pleasure-seekers, who find this picturesque resort the ideal place for a day and evening's outing. Excellent facilities are provided and fishing, boating and kodaking attract many.

STEAMER ST. JOHNS.
Those who make the trip to Colonial Beach find good salt water bathing and in addition much fun can be had in many other directions. Boating, fishing, crabbing and dancing are all in full swing. The steamer St. Johns makes the trip on Thursday at 9 a. m., Saturday at 9 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. and on Sunday at 9 a. m.
